FRANKS WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN

Owensboro Collector Will Make Republican Speech
To-day.

ROAST NIGHT RIDERS.

Expected to Make Prevailing Lawlessness Burden of His Song.

The political campaign in the Second Congressional district will be formally opened by the Republicans in this city this afternoon with a speech by the Hon. E. T. Franks, collector of Internal revenue at Owensboro, in support of Taft and Sherman. The speaking will take place in the circuit court room at 1:30 p. m.

Since the date was announced there have been many rumors as to what Mr. Franks would have to say, but when questioned in this regard, the Republican leader will only smile and look wise. It is generally conceded, though, that the speaker will deal at length with the tobacco troubles in the district, and it is intimated that he will make this his paramount issue in his speech. Should this prediction be fulfilled, it will at once establish this question as one of the issues of the campaign in this state.

Mr. Franks, more familiarly known as "Broncho," is well known in this section. Upon many occasions has he addressed the voters of this region, and he is regarded as one of the strongest speakers and best campaigners in the Republican ranks. Even under ordinary circumstances he would doubtless be greeted by a full house, but with the extra advertising that has been done and the arrangements being made, he will have a great crowd.

Hon. A. O. Stanley, the Democratic nominee for Congress, was here Thursday and said his information was that Mr. Franks was preparing to make a bitter attack upon him. Mr. Stanley went to Washington yesterday, but will soon return and enter into the campaign. He will, of course, be heard here later in the campaign.

The Republicans will have a general rally to-day, as they will reorganize their county committee and take some action looking to the nomination of candidates for county judge and sheriff.

GEN. JOHNSTON

In Hopkinsville on Official
Tour of Inspection.

Adjutant General P. P. Johnston was in the city Thursday afternoon making a tour of inspection of the various military camps of Kentucky. He went to Princeton and after visiting Eddyville and the camps in Caldwell and Trigg counties returned here last night and left this morning for Guthrie.

Gen. Johnston expressed himself as pleased with the situation in Western Kentucky. He says public sentiment has shown a wonderful change since he was here and the people generally are more outspoken against lawlessness than in any other place he has visited.

He said Gov. Willson is opposed to any sort of compromise with the criminal element.

He intimated strongly that there was no immediate probability of the removal of troops now on duty in this region, but further developments would be awaited. He declared that under no circumstances would the prosecution of the fight against night riders be abandoned until the organization had been broken up and the leaders punished.

BIG PICNIC AT GUTHRIE

The Farmers of Todd County
Have Monster Gathering To-day.

SPEAKERS INVITED.

Two Thousand Invitations
Were Issued By the Committee.

Two thousand invitations have been issued by the committee on arrangements of the farmers and planters of Todd and adjoining counties to an old-fashioned basket picnic and speaking to-day at the fair grounds in Guthrie. The Hon. Joseph E. Washington will be master of ceremonies and the following speakers have been invited: F. G. Ewing, A. O. Stanley, John Rhea, Joel Fort and John E. Garner, Jr.

At the June meeting of the board of directors of the association it was decided that no general rally and barbecue would be held at Guthrie this year on the same order as those held in previous years. It was recommended by the board, however, that each county hold a meeting during the summer for the purpose of keeping the enthusiasm for the organization up to the highest point. The picnic at Guthrie will be of greater significance, perhaps, than any other held in the district. Guthrie is the birthplace of the organization and has been headquarters since its formation.

The committee on arrangements is composed of W. C. Balee, chairman; J. S. Linebaugh, W. L. Poinexter, M. E. Webb and Alex. Harris.

PETRE-PETRIE.

Fairview Belle Drops One
Letter Out of Her Name.

Mr. Vernon Henning Petre, of Cannelton, Ind., who has been for several years in the Philippines, was married to Miss Annie Mae Petrie, of Christian county, Ky., in Fairview Baptist church at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night.

Rev. W. C. Brandon, of the Methodist church, pronounced the ceremony and the ushers were R. E. Witt, of Hopkinsville, Ralph and Guy Dority, of Pembroke, and Harry Williams, of Elkton. The bridesmaids were Misses McKinney, Hazel and Fay Petrie, Sarah C. Petre and Marie Forgy. The maid of honor was Miss Belle Riley, of Allensville, and the best man was Edwin C. Humphrey, of Evansville.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for San Francisco, where they will sail next Tuesday for a trip of six weeks, during which they will touch at nearly every seaport of importance. They will reside in Manila.

The bride is one of the most beautiful and talented young ladies of this region. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Petrie, of Fairview.

Mr. Petre is a son of Mr. F. G. Petre, of this city.

LIKENESS OF NAMES RESULTS IN WEDDING

Mr. Vernor H. Petre Weds
Miss Annie Mae Petrie in Christian County.

Cannelton, Ind., Aug. 19.—As the romantic result of a photograph delivered to the wrong address through a postman's mistake of one letter in two names pronounced alike, Mr. Vernor Henning Petre, a Canneltonian, who has been for several years in the Philippine Islands, was near "Fairview," the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Petrie. Mr. Petre and Miss Petrie only met this spring, even their families being personally unacquainted until last year, when a picture of himself, addressed to his sister, Miss Saidee Petre, in Hopkinsville, was accidentally delivered to Miss Annie Mae Petrie in the same city at the time. A correspondence ensued which led to an engagement, announced in June on Mr. Petre's return on furlough from Manila, where he is Deputy Collector of Customs, the youngest ever appointed, being only 22. He will sail with his bride for Manila next week from San Francisco.

WILL ACCEPT.

Gov. Johnson Says He Will Make Race.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—Shortly before noon Gov. Johnson called the newspaper men together and announced that he would accept the nomination tendered to him by the State Democratic Convention at Minneapolis yesterday. He did not issue a formal statement, but said:

GOV. JOHN A. JOHNSON.

"After due consideration of the matter and before I have been formally notified, I will tell you that I have made up my mind to lay aside all personal considerations and listen to the call of the party. I will accept the nomination when it is formally tendered to me.

"I desire to state also and to make it emphatic that if the committee had called on me before the nominating speech had been made, I would have positively declined to be a candidate.

"This acceptance is contrary to my better judgment. I have given this matter the closest thought for the past twenty-four hours and my first opinion that a third nomination is unwise and against the principles of the party is unchanged; yet I hardly see how I can get away from making the race without putting the party in a hole. I regret this action and wish it had never happened."

Gov. Johnson received a telegram congratulation from Wm. J. Bryan in which Mr. Bryan said he would do all he could to help Mr. Johnson win.

LAID TO BROTHER.

James Willingham Suspected
by Coroner's Jury.

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 21.—Verdict of the coroner's jury here in the murder of Foster Willingham failed to develop more than to name James Willingham, a brother, as the slayer. The brother's bed was in the same room as that occupied by Willingham and his wife, and it is believed that James slew Foster in the night to revenge an old quarrel, which they had renewed recently. James Willingham has fled and cannot be found.

HONEST AMERICANS.

Incidents That Greatly Surprised a Visitor From Germany.

On his first visit to the United States a German manufacturer was the guest of a kinsman in New York. He expressed surprise when, a few days after his arrival, he saw a number of men help themselves to papers at an unattended newsstand, where some men laid down the exact price of their purchase, others made change for themselves and still others walked away without paying. He was told that the last named group were customers who paid only once a week, but that no one ever failed to pay.

To demonstrate his contention that "most people are honest in this country" the Americanized German took his visitor that day to a restaurant where both were unknown, and when they had finished their luncheon the host went to the cashier's desk with his check and said he had no money with him, but would pay the next day.

The cashier gave the couple a hasty glance and said, "All right; I'll take a chance," and the men started for the street. At the door a right about face movement was executed, the check was paid, a good cigar was handed to the cashier, to whom the plot was revealed, and the German exclaimed, "Grossartig!" (magnificent).—Chicago News.

A CINGALESE DAINTY.

Ceylon White Ants and Their Numerous Natural Enemies.

It is estimated that two-thirds of the island of Ceylon is undermined by white ants. The number of these insects is certainly quite incalculable, but it is fortunate that their natural enemies are almost as numerous.

The workers are preyed upon by true ants and many other insects; by spiders, lizards and centipedes; by rats, mice and palm squirrels. But it is the adult winged insects that are especially victimized. It is probable that scarcely 1 per cent of the mature insects survive the dangers of the periodical fights.

They run the gamut of nearly every other animal. Birds, bats, squirrels, rats, toads and lizards all flock to the feast. Dogs and cats eat the winged ants with avidity.

"Even man himself does not disdain to participate," says E. E. Green. "The Tamil coolie looks upon a mess of fried termites as a great dainty, and I have several European acquaintances who consider that termites on toast form a dish worthy of more general inclusion in the menu. They are said to taste not unlike mushrooms."—Agricultural Journal of Ceylon Botanic Gardens.

The Warning Signals.

A Boston physician tells a story of a youngster of his own that an over-strenuous vacation had put on the sick list. The father had an appropriate prescription filled and left the bottle with the child's mother. As she, however, is very forgetful, he gave her a chart and suggested that she set down the hours when the medicine should be given, checking off each dose as taken. Upon returning from his evening calls, however, he found the chart blank.

"Good gracious, Mary!" he exclaimed. "Surely you haven't failed to give Tom his medicine?"

"Oh, no. I did not miss a single time," his wife assured him.

"How in the world did you remember it without the chart?" he asked.

She smiled.

"That was easy. I just told Tom this morning at what hours he was to have it, and half an hour before each time he would begin hallooing that he wouldn't take it."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The French Are Good Travelers.

The French on their travels are the very reverse of the English. Imperturbably amiable, they never grumble and without the slightest effort, as a mere matter of course, make the best of everything. I have made journeys with many French friends of both sexes, young, middle aged and elderly, often in out of the way places meeting with discomforts enough. Nothing ruffles their temper. Pleased to enjoy fresh scenes with a genial companion, they extract the utmost possible pleasure from every incident, even little annoyances being turned to good account.—Miss Betham-Edwards in London Chronicle.

What He Would Keep.

When the late Francois Coppee was elected to the academy, he told his friend, Theodore de Banville, that he wished he were in too. Banville declined to canvass.

"Suppose your nomination were brought to you one fine morning on a silver salver."

"I don't know what I should do with the nomination," said Banville, "but I should certainly keep the salver."

Financial Advice.

"Here's a man," said the old citizen, "who lost $5,000 in a bank when he put it for safe keeping. Bill, don't you ever take no risk like that. Ef ever you gits hold of any money, do like your father before you done—bury it an' spen' the rest of your life sittin' over it with a shotgun."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Verbal Bracer.

"My wife," said the first clubman,

Vivisection.

Experiments on living animals were made by Galen (A. D. 175) and by the Greek Alexandrian school and were regarded as a valuable source of knowledge until the breakup of the Roman empire. In modern times vivisection may be said to have begun with the experiments of Dr. William Harvey (1658) and Dr. John Hunter (1750). Vivisection has been more or less generally practiced since the beginning of the nineteenth century, though very often under protest of the various societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Demanded Consideration.

A prominent clergyman tells with great delight of a brother minister who was called to a certain church. A committee visited the minister and asked that he accept the call.

"I have been considering the matter," replied the reverend gentleman, "but my wife fears she may not like the church."

"But your wife doesn't preach," protested the committeeman.

"True enough," replied the clergyman thoughtfully, "but she frequently lectures."—Circle.

Nearly a Precedent.

While there has never been an instance in which the president and the vice president chosen with him have both died in the course of the term for which they were chosen, this came very near happening in the term for which Harrison and Tyler were elected. When Tyler was serving as president after the death of Harrison, he had an extremely narrow escape from death by the explosion of the big gun Peacemaker on the steamer Princeton, Feb. 28, 1844, which killed two members of Tyler's cabinet—Secretary of State Abel P. Upshur and Secretary of the Navy Thomas W. Gilmer—and David Gardiner, the father of Tyler's second wife.

Another Scientific Discovery.

The doctor eyed the patient gravely, and then solemnly addressed the tearful mother who was in attendance.

"I regret, madam, that your son is suffering from a severe concussion of the brain."

A gleam of satisfaction flitted across the lady's face.

"Ah, my bonnie boy!" she exclaimed, with pride. "Won't his father be glad to hear that?"—London Scraps.

An Admission.

Waters had just come in from his club. He appeared to be in the best of humor, and his wife soon found out why.

"You've heard me speak of Sellers, haven't you?" he asked.

"That man that knows such an awful lot about the tariff?" ventured Mrs. Waters.

"The man who talks so much about it," corrected Waters. "Well, we had a long argument about it this evening, and I came out away ahead."

"You did!" exclaimed Mrs. Waters, surprised.

"Yes; I got him to admit that he knows no more about it than I do."—Exchange.

Faith In Oratory.

"I suppose, Uncle Jim, you remember a good deal about the politics of the early days?"

"Well, I never tuk much int'rest in pollytics, but I recollect when John C. Fremont was 'lected president!"

"Fremont? Why, Fremont was never elected."

"He wun't? Well, now, that gits me. I heerd a leadin' speaker talk the night 'fore 'lection, an' he said if John C. Fremont wun't 'lected the country would fall to ruin an' everybody would have to shut up shop. Course I didn't take the papers; but, noticin' that things went on 'bout same as before, I calclated John won. So he wun't 'lected? Well, b'jinks, that gits me!"—Judge.

A WOMAN'S TACT.

And the Way She Explained Her Diplomacy to Her Husband.

It being a holiday, the blundering man made calls with his wife. The first place they went the hostess said, "Julia is engaged."

"Is she, indeed?" said the man's wife radiantly. "Which one did she finally accept?"

The next place they were informed that Margaret was engaged, and again the man's wife beamed sympathetically and murmured: "Is she, indeed? Which one did she accept?" At the third place it was the news of Jessie's engagement that was broken to them. As before, the man's wife put the question, "Which one did she finally take?"

On their way home the man said: "Why did you ask 'which one' every time a new engagement was sprung on us? Are those girls so attractive that men were falling over each other in the scramble to get them for their wives?"

"Not at all," said his wife. "I don't suppose either of them ever had but one offer, and it is a wonder she got that. I shouldn't be surprised if the men back out even now before the wedding day. But you see, dear, I had to be diplomatic. Those people can do me many favors. The surest way to make myself solid with them is to pretend to think their girls so popular that every man in town was crazy to marry them."

"With my opportunities downtown," groaned the man, "if I had your genius we'd be millionaires inside of six months."—New York Sun.

FOES OF THE LEVEES.

Sources of Danger to the Artificial Banks Along the Mississippi.

"People who know little about our system of levees, the artificial banks built to confine the flood waters that pour into the Mississippi, no doubt imagine that the heavy rains are the only enemy with which the levees have to contend," said a Baton Rouge man.

"On the contrary, the levees, both during times of flood and low water, are subject to the incessant attacks of living foes, the destructive work of which costs millions of dollars. These foes are alligators, turtles, muskrats, field rats, fresh water terrapin and crawfish. Of all these burrowers that prey on the levees, excavating within them goodly chambers or tunnels, the crawfish do the most damage, with the turtles and terrapins a good second. The harm done by the alligators is comparatively small.

"In repairing the banks crawfish holes are often found of immense size. It is these hollow spaces that in time of freshets cause a caving in and break of the levees, which of course bring on an inundation of all the adjacent country. The worst part of the business is that no way of exterminating these pests has yet been found, and the only thing to be done is to try to keep them away from the banks as much as possible."—Baltimore American.

The Inquisitive Woman.

Street car conductors regard inquisitive women passengers with superstitious dread. The other day a fuse blew out in a Broadway car, and that car was hitched on as a trailer to the one ahead. Presently a woman began to ask questions.

"What would happen," she said, "if the fuse were to blow out in that car ahead? What would become of us? Would the car ahead of that be able to drag both of these cars?"

"I don't know," said the conductor. "But don't worry. We won't have a chance to find out. A double accident of that kind has never happened to a car of mine yet, and it isn't likely to happen once in a hundred years."

Just then there came an explosion ahead, and both cars came to a standstill. The fuse had blown out.

"Confound that woman!" growled the conductor. "That is all her fault. This wouldn't have happened if she hadn't asked so many fool questions. She's a Jonah."—New York Times.

It Paid.

A little boy of five years, playing with his sister one day, leaned too far out of the second story window, lost his balance and fell into the yard below. Very miraculously he escaped being injured, and his parents and friends were so delighted that they gave him quite a number of pennies, nickels and dimes.

The next day, after he recovered from the shock of the fall, he was counting his money and on seeing his little sister enter the room exclaimed: "Gee, Gladys, look at all the money I got for falling out of the window! Why don't you try it?"—Delineator.

Manhood's Estate.

It is a very foolish convention which lays down that we are grown up when we have reached our twenty-first birthday. The real majority is reached when we begin to earn our own bread and butter and to bring forth the light which has been fostered in us by the care of others for the last ten or fifteen years. Self dependence and self reliance—that is the real manhood.—Isis.

Chained Books.

The finest known collection of chained books is that in Hereford (England) cathedral. It includes about 2,000 volumes arranged in five book-cases, of which not less than 1,500 are secured by chains three or four feet long, each with a swivel in the center.

All the world may not exactly love a lover, but it always takes quite an interest in his letters when they are read to the jury.—Puck.

Judge Cook wants night riding cured by absent treatment; by mental telepathy, by Christian Science. If the sufferers will keep quiet; if insurance companies will pay; if victims will not sue; if witnesses will refuse to tell the truth; if the newspapers would write nothing about these numerous acts of violence, he thinks Western Kentucky would be quiet once more as peace reigned in Warsaw. All that is a delusion. But if the officers of the court would protect the weak and the oppressed; if the Society of Equity would put its shield over every person threatened by mob violence; if Judge Cook would vacate the bench, and use his personal influence to bring to justice those few men whom he admits to have been on night raids, justice would be more shown here in Kentucky, and an end could be seen to a long era of shame and humiliation.—Louisville Post.

The above somewhat vicious attack upon Judge Cook by the Louisville Post, is, we believe, unwarranted and unjust. In handling the night rider troubles in his district, Judge Cook has not displayed the energy shown by Judge Reed, but he has not been openly criticised except for his recent rulings at Murray. In the trials here, the cases were nearly all called without proper preparation, but that is not usually the fault of the judge. If Judge Cook will in the future trials send to communities not infested with night riders for his juries, he will do the one thing most needed to break up lawlessness in his district. It is hoped he will do this.

The prosecuting witnesses have not yet been produced by County Attorney Krone at Eddyville and it is believed that the officials in charge of the prosecution of night riders in Lyon county do not desire indictments at this term, as the indictments would be followed by speedy acquittals. Parties held over will be released, but may be indicted by any future grand jury when convictions are possible.

Gov. Willson in pardoning two men charged with killing a man in Shelby county, who was alleged to be a night rider, has served notice on night riders that they may be shot down like dogs and no one will be punished for it. This ought to open the eyes of night riders to the fact that the time has come for them to quit.

Judge Cook may not be a night rider, but the prosecution thinks that his ruling in the Ellis case prevented a conviction and exceptions have been entered for the Court of Appeals to pass on. There are other ways to kill a dog than by choking him to death with butter.—State Journal.

The race troubles at Springfield, Ill., are over for the present and most of the soldiers have been sent away.

An earthquake shock at Eureka, Cal., knocked down many chimney tops on the 18th, but no serious damage was done.

The Lusitania has again lowered her record from Europe to 4 days, 15 hours and 25 minutes, clipping off about three hours.

A mob in Lynn, Mass., attempted to lynch a negro Thursday night, who had attacked an officer with a heavy chisel.

Mr. Bryan's trick mule presented by admirers in Minnesota arrived at Fairview Wednesday and celebrated his advent by throwing a newspaper correspondent, who injudiciously attempted to ride him.

The handing down of seven more sentences of death at St. Petersburg Thursday was reported, making the total for one day throughout the empire twenty-six, and constituting a sinister record.

The retirement of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans placed Rear Admiral Casper F. Goodrich, commandant of the Navy Yard at New York, at the head of the active list of Rear Admirals of the navy. Admiral Goodrich will be retired in January next.

For fear that the night rider organs, who are excited over the Wallonia lodge room episode, have forgotten the circumstance, we would again remind them that the night riders shot out a window in the Odd Fellows building here last December. Why not denounce that?

Gov. John A. Johnson was renominated unanimously by the Minnesota Democratic Convention at Minneapolis after a demonstration of more than one hour. Gov. Johnson when asked last night is he would accept said he had not been officially notified of his nomination but would accept.

Replying to a friend, who asked Admiral Bob Evans, just retired, how he felt on his sixty-second birthday, he replied characteristically: "Fit as a fiddle. I am sixty-two years young today, and I expect to reach a hundred. I am taking on flesh at the rate of half a pound a day, and I have not got a thing to do but loaf. Who wouldn't get well under such circumstances?"

New York's latest sensation is the shooting down of Wm. E. Annis, a rich man, by Capt. Peter C. Hains, an army officer, for his attentions to the officer's wife. Hains was accompanied by his brother, T. J. Hains, who stood by and saw Annis shot to death at Bayside, Long Island. Both men are charged with murder. They are sons of Gen. Hains, of Washington.

The race between Kimball and Cantrill in the Seventh district for the Congressional nomination is attracting attention all over the State. A Carlisle correspondent says sentiment between the two candidates is greatly divided in Bourbon and each candidate and his respective friends are making a determined fight for the delegation. Both candidates are directing their appeals to the farmers and are taking a strong stand for the Equity organization. The Equity people seem to be divided between the two, notwithstanding the fact that Senator Cantrill is the State president of that organization, for they look with great satisfaction on the record made by Mr. Kimball in Congress in championing measures to their interest. The outcome of the situation in Bourbon seems a little doubtful, but certainly with the chances in favor of Congressman Kimball. It is claimed that Mr. Kimball will have Fayette and Henry counties certain and possibly Bourbon and Woodford in his favor. Mr. Cantrill will have Scott and perhaps Franklin. It is not known here what the situation is in Owen. That Congressman Kimball will receive the nomination when the convention meets at Lexington next month seems to be the most popular belief.

STILL ANOTHER.

Various Tobacco Societies Form Big Merger.

Representatives from ten tobacco societies of Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Ohio met at Bowling Green, Ky., Thursday and merged all the different tobacco associations of the four States into one combination. The style of the organization is to be known as the Union Tobacco Society. It is said that it will represent 100,000 tobacco growers. Plans for the permanent organization of the union were considered. The union will incorporate under the laws of Kentucky without any capital stock.

Mrs. Alice Edwards Dead.

Cadiz, Ky., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Alice Edwards, wife of Mr. J. E. Edwards, of this place, after an illness of several weeks from a stomach trouble, is dead. She was about 60 years of age, and had been a member of the Methodist church for a long time. Her remains were buried in East End cemetery at this place.

JNO. D. SCALES, Auditor.

The total receipts on the Hopkinsville market to Aug. 15, were 6,584 hogsheads, of which about 43 per cent has been sold. Cerulean Springs has about 400 hogsheads on hand to be sold here.

Report Not Credited.

Reports have been received from Hopkinsville that the Imperial Tobacco Company has made an offer for the growing crop of tobacco in Christian county at an average of nine cents per pound. As the crop in Christian county as in every other county in the western portion of the state is controlled by the Planters' Protective Association, it is presumed this offer, if a bona fide one, will be made to that organization. At headquarters nothing has been heard of the offer. It is said that the Imperial Company would accept the tobacco in a loose state only. It is hardly probable that such an offer would be accepted by the association.—Guthrie Planter.

Virginia Mob Leader Fined.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 19.—Ten of the fourteen men charged with participating in the attack made on the county jail last week by a mob that sought to lynch the negroes, Henry Smith and Brack King, charged with criminal assault on aged Mrs. Powell, were today each fined $100 and costs, with sixty days in jail. The others were discharged. All of those convicted appealed and were bailed.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

Bethel Female College Will Open Sept. 1st.

Bethel Female College will open the fall session on the first day of September and President Harrison reports that his prospects are bright for an increased attendance over last year. A large number of boarding pupils have already reserved rooms and many more are in correspondence. The friends of the institution will be glad to know the outlook is so promising.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Hopkinsville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood. When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidneys' cry for health. Heed it. Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted. Are just what overworked kidneys need. They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

J. D. Christian, living on Clarksville Street, Elkton, Ky., says: "My kidneys were disordered for a long time, and although I took many remedies, I never received relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They were so entirely satisfactory that I'm constantly recommending them to other sufferers of kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly rid my system of kidney complaint in a remarkably short time."

Plenty more proof like this from Hopkinsville people. Call at L. A. Johnson & Co.'s drug store and ask what their customers report.
